

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Happenings at Full Circle Bookstore: Food Network's Alton Brown to Sign Books on Oct. 23 Trio of Paranormal Young Adult Authors to sign books Oct. 22

Oklahoma City, Oct. 7, 2011 -- Food Network star and author Alton Brown will visit Oklahoma City's Full Circle Bookstore at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 23, to sign copies of his latest book, "Good Eats: The Later Years." Full Circle Bookstore is on the first level of 50 Penn Place.

As the creator and host of TV's "Good Eats" and commentator on "Iron Chef America," Brown has earned international acclaim for his wit and scientific approach to the culinary arts. The Peabody Award-winning "Good Eats" is in its 14th season on the Food Network.

"Good Eats 3" boasts more than 200 delicious recipes accompanied by hundreds of photographs, drawings and stills from the popular show, as well as a smorgasbord of science-of-food facts, cooking tips, behind-the-scenes glimpses and more.

The day before Brown's appearance, Full Circle gets in the Halloween spirit with a Saturday, Oct. 22, book-signing by three major authors of paranormal young-adult fiction. From 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. that day, Tara Hudson will sign copies of "Hereafter," Sonia Gensler will sign "The Revenant" and Tessa Gratton will sign "Blood Magic."

Hudson and Gensler are Oklahomans; Hudson lives in Choctaw while Gensler calls Norman home.

-30-

For more information

Dana Meister, Full Circle Bookstore (405) 842-2900

Phil Bacharach, Bacharach Communications (405) 568-0348